Fred Laffie, senior partner and founder of the Laffie Financial Group, has over 30 years of insurance and estate planning experience. Prior to founding LFG, Fred was a practicing CPA with two large public accounting firms. Throughout his career, Fred has received several industry accolades; he has achieved membership in the industry's prestigious Million Dollar Round Table each and every year since 1990 and has been acknowledged at its highest level, the Top of the Table for the last 20 years. He is a former co-chairman of the New York State Society of CPAs Estate Planning Committee, and lectures and publishes articles related to the life insurance industry. Fred lives in Plainview, New York and maintains a home in Florida as well. He is an active volunteer and passionate about supporting the Multiple Myeloma Foundation. Fred enjoys family travel, golf, and loves nothing more than spending time with his grandchildren.
